We will shortly publish the scale of prices, by which all advertising will be charged under the given to-night at the Mozart Hall, by Louisville's dtf-blc.

The editor of the mob organ complains that an effort is making to create a defection of the ville. Old-Line Whigs from the American party. Woll, It is quite amusing -a defection from the American porty. What have Od-Line Whigs to do with the American party? They have never approved its organization, nor its ereed, nor its objects; and they are totally prescribed by it. Helm, an Old Line Whig, had been, for time out of mind, Clerk of the popular branch of the Kentneky General Assembly. He was unrivalled in his qualifications for that post, and every man at ail familier with the politics of this State felt that his re-election to that position was natural, and to be expected. He, however, had never taken the oaths of the secret order, nor had he learned the nom-nated one of the faithful, ignoring their old Whig clerk,

In his city, all parties recollect the case of the Rev J. H. Hey wood, who has been for many years Schools, and has done more for the interests of body has not been discovered. these invaluable institutions than any man in Louisville. Toat he onght to have been elected. all rea-onable meu wi l admit. He was an O d-Line W. ig, if, indeed, he belonged to any party; but he didn's belong to the new party, and they nominated another man and elected him.

Then, another remarkable case has just hap paned. Judge Pirtle was, no doubt, the choice city, and he held the creed of the Knew-Nothing party; he had voted for their candidates, but he didn't belong to the order, and was, therefore, sel aside. He has been an O.d-Line Whig, too.

Old-Line Whigs are everywhere proscribed; they o maining, as it does, some of the gents of the bes tent they are confessed to be. Most of them don't indures the croed and the objects of the new par y Know Nothing party: or what is meant hy their utmost. defection from it? Have the Know-Nothings a mortgage on the Whige of Kenincky, any mo than upon Danograts? The editor writes as it the Old Line Whigs belonged to the Know Nothlngs, by some right of possession, and their failure to support their owners is called a d feetion. When the Know-Nuthings proscribe O.d Li-Waigs, is not there a defection from the Whig

Now, we are not striving to create this defection the editor talks about; but we do may it will be strange, if Old-Line Whigs will submit to be business proscribed universally hy a party whose organize tion and creed they condomn, and yet support it They must possess a remarkable degree of Christian forhearance to lick the hand that strikes them, and we shall not give them credit for so much of it, until we see its manifestation.

We shall not attempt to coax or flatter these Old Line Whige; the effect of such means have been tried upon them to get them into the Know-Nothing lodges, and we therefore conclude that it is not worth while to persnade that class of men. They have opinions of their own, that they will he very a t to follow. They show, by their position, that they do their own thinking and soting in political matters.

They will, perhaps, vote by themselves; but i they make choice between the two other parties we don't think it will take sensible men long to choose the right side.

The editor of the Journal is down upo the hackmen. After giving an account of an out-the route to the East again, to be subject d to such in-tensions extortion between Portland and Louisville. Hundred of other a ave declared the sum thing. The villainles of the hackmen are driving travel from us.

Where are the Main street guardians of the in terests of Louisville, that they permit their organ to publish such feats? So they want to drive the travel fr m this ronte? Ought not the thing to by bushed up and denied? It may be true, but what of that? They attempted to proscribe us for telling the truth about their moh and its con s quences. Why do they permit the truth to he from passing through a city where they are subjected to such extertions. Hudn't Prentice better be careful how he quarrels with the hackmen? Some of them can tell some queer stories about date they had not met. him in the olden time, before he became what he Louisville Journal.

The editor of the Journal knows that there is no ench digislan of the Democracy as there is in N-w York in any other State, and there never has been such a division. There is no defection amongst the D morracy outside of New York, on any issue before the country; and the divi sion in that State is of the less importance narrouth as the Black Espublicans will get her vote next November; but, however it may be, the Democratic party will have no affiliation

The editor of the mob organ publishes Col. Jack Ailen, the other day, as it was reseveral letters, written by Whigs in 1946 ascribing ported he would de. WASHINGTON, May 24, M. The condition of Mr. Sumner is not deemed a favorable this morning as it was yesterday, and his physicians forbid him to leave his room. The conmittee of the two houses took the preliminary steps for the investigation of circumstances attend ing the assault.

SPRINGFIELD, May 24, M. An Indignation meeting was held last evening by the students of Amherst College in reference to the outrage npon Mr. Snemer. The meeting was addressed by President, Stearns, Profs. Haven and Greene, and others. Resolutions w re unau imously adopted, expressive of indignation at the insult to Massachusetts, and of sympathy to Mr. Summer. NEW YORK, May 24.

The Republican county committee, at a meeting held last evening, passed strong resulves, denouncing the assault upon Mr. Sumaer, and calling upon the House of Representatives to expel the assaulant, and also upon the courts of Washington oily to punish him, otherwise the seat of Government upon the removed ment must be removed. The meeting of citizens called to express the popular sentiment in regard to the assault on Sen-ator Sumner, was an immense assemblage. Though called at a late hour in the day, Chaplin Hall was found too small to accommodate the crowd, and an adjournment to Tremont Temple was found to be necessary.

The meeting was opened with a prayer by Rev.
Mr. Beether. Sam'l Groele presided.
A general indignation was expressed by the Speeches were made by Rov. Mr. Freeman Clark, Wendel Phillips, Judge Russell, Theo. Parker, J. M. D. Williams, of Cambridge; Lyman Beecher, Inc. L. Swift and W. B. Spooner.

The speeches of Messrs. Phillips and Parker peakers and pervaded the andie were almost entirely political, with minor references as to the ebject of the meeting.

Mr. Spooner dissented from the declaration Mr. Spooner dissented from the declaration made by both, that the men not of the freesoil party r. joiced at the assault on Mr. Sumner, and justified the assault by Mr. Brooks. He said it was not so, and beld out a requisition for the use of Fancuil Hall on Saturday night for a mass meeting, signed by over fifty men of all parties the present meeting, he said, was a spontaneous me, and no special party had credit for its initiation.

The meeting a ijourned at 1 o'clock to assemble at Fancuil Hall this evening.

min in the second second RAILROAD! THIS GREAT WORK OF INTER-HIS CREAT WORK OF INTERnal improvement (379 miles from Whosling to Baltimore, and 468 to Washington,) was opened to the Oble river in Jannary, 1883, and has now been fully setted and approved, both as a freight and passenger ronte. This road is located in a romantic connery, is solidly constructed, fully equipped, and carchity managed, and is thus rendered an attractive as well as a asfe line for travelers. The late completion of the Central Ohio Boad, from Columbus to the Ohio river, near Wheeling, asid greatly to the importance of this route, oftering, as it does, the most thorough Railroad
